A MURDEROUS WRESTLER.

He Becomes Infatuated with Drink and Kills His Wife and Brother.

LOUISVILLE, June 25.—Word reached here this afternoon from a friend of a man named Martin Osborne, who had killed his wife and his brother at their home near this place. Marion and John Stewart, Tippecanoe county, were on some point in the game. All had been drinking and blows passed. Marion then drew a navy revolver and shot John through the heart. He turned to shoot Osborne, who is his stepson. Osborne ran, followed by Stewart. Mr. Stewart interfered and shot him dead. It was found that Osborne by this time had slipped and Stewart turned his attention to Hall. Hall got away, but came back half an hour later, when Stewart again tried to kill him. Stewart escaped. Seeing his wife lying dead outside the door and his brother in a dying condition inside, Stewart turned to to get the children, and started up the mountain side. The children saw what the dead mother into the home where the father's brother was dying. Mrs. Stewart leaves seven children; the oldest 14 years older and then comes the youngest child, a boy of 10. She leaves a wife and small family. No attempt at arrest has been made, although Tippecanoe county officers are searching for Stewart for killing his mother.
